

The Londesborough United and Knox United in Auburn have recently been placed in Region 8 of the Western Ontario Waterway under the newly restructured United Church of Canada.

The communities of Londesborough and Auburn are situated in a rural settings and have family roots dating back generations. The beautiful historic churches are simple in nature and have served the area congregations individually for more than 150 years.

Knox United, Auburn Ontario

Londesborough United Church, Londesborough Ontario

This is not a two point charge yet a shared ministry. Knox United, Auburn contracts services from Londesborough. One clergy provides weekly services at two locations. Both churches operate under the governance of their own boards. The office of the Minister is located in the Londesborough Church. A part time administration staff provides assistance to the Minister, board, congregation members and community. The two churches do partner together to provide special services regularly throughout the year.

Londesborough United and Knox United, Auburn Search Team

March 2019

---

The congregations in both Londesborough and Auburn strive to provide a welcoming environment for fellowship and support and look for inspiration at weekly services. The nature of our churches is to provide leadership, teamwork, community support and to build relationships within our church and community. New growth and opportunity awaits!

The Londesborough and Auburn United Churches are located separately in their respective villages 12 kilometers apart in the Municipality of Central Huron located within the Corporation of the County of Huron. Huron County is located near the shores of Lake Huron in Southwestern Ontario approximately a 1 hour drive north of London and a 3 hour drive west of Toronto.

Huron County is a vibrant landscape, rich in farmland and agricultural technology with numerous educational and cultural opportunities. Huron County citizens benefit from good local healthcare, quality child care services and numerous recreation opportunities. For more information on what makes Huron County a great place to work and live, please access the links below.

<http://www.centralhuron.com/>

<https://www.huroncounty.ca/>

<http://www.makehuronhome.ca/>

<https://www.ontarioswestcoast.ca/>

For further information on the opportunity available in the Londesborough Auburn United Church Communities, please reach out to the search team members at laucsearchteam@tcc.on.ca